A Letter from Our Founder

Hello dear friends,

This month I have travelled to Istanbul, Turkey; a picturesque country filled with rich culture. I spent my time enjoying leisurely activities and meeting with friends, hopping from gallery to gallery to soak in as much beauty as I could.

This vibrant city is a melting pot of cultures and delicious food, and I found great pleasure in indulging in Turkish delights, meze plates, and long lazy breakfasts in the beautiful warm weather.

Istanbul's art venues range from glamorous party spots to converted Ottoman power stations, and you can find everything from modern and contemporary art to historical and period pieces.

I hope you, too, have had a fruitful month of discovery, and have taken some time to indulge in your own pleasures.

I look forward to seeing what June brings.

Yours Sincerely,

Shk. Nadia Aldoseri

Vahe Vartanian

“Family is something that I value strongly and continue to do so today with my own young family.”

Vahe is Founder and CEO of the Global Family Office Community (GFOC) and is a globally recognised leader in the family office space.

Vahe created GFOC to provide a safe and comfortable setting where family offices can meet each other; share ideas, stories and best practice; and learn from experts, in an otherwise private and lonely environment. This has now grown to be a globally cohesive group with nearly 1,000 family office members.

NDA spoke to Vahe to discuss his inspirations, aspirations, and the future of his business.

I was born in London, UK to Armenian parents, who like many of the Armenians in diaspora came to this country with not much to their name. My mother’s family had been displaced twice, latterly from what is now known as “Northern Cyprus” where ultimately, they had to leave behind a happy life and successful business. My parents worked extremely hard, my father who had a very successful corporate career, worked long hours, and they had a drive and determination to provide the best possible life for myself and my younger sister. Despite having a typical upbringing and being fortunate to have very good schooling, we were raised with Armenian values, culture and language instilled in us from the day we were born...
